IS NOT ENCOURAGED REGARDING ULSTER

CITY CO-OPERATING WITH HARBOR BOARD

Premier Asquith Does Not Like Reception of Latest Proposals.

Wants Main Principles Considered Ere Details Are Touched On.

(By Times Special Cable.)
London, March 16.—It does not seem encouraged over the reception of proposals in regard to Ulster, Premier Asquith to-day in the House of Commons. He was replying to a number of requests for further details of the scheme of local legislation under which provision the nine counties of Ulster will be permitted to vote separately on the question whether they shall be left out of the control of the new Irish Government at Dublin.

Premier Asquith had fully adhered to his proposals in the hope that they would form a "basis of settlement." He added: "I am anxious, in the interests of agreement and peace, that the main principle of our proposals should be considered on their merits without being encumbered with minute details liable to draw the discussion into backwaters."

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the Opposition, took exception to the Premier's attitude. He declared it was impossible to debate the proposals without details being given.

Premier Asquith declined to give the House an opportunity to discuss his refusal of the details before he accepted the main principles of the proposals.

The woman, whose identity was not disclosed, met the prison commissioner at the entrance to the Duke Street prison, and dragged him over the head and shoulders with the whip. The woman was picked up by a policeman and placed in a patrol car. Dr. Devon refused to prosecute her and she was released.

LATE MRS. JOHN CALDER

Mrs. John Calder Died Early This Morning.

IN PUBLIC LIFE

The news of the death of Mrs. John Calder, which occurred this morning at 6 o'clock at her late residence, 151 Aberdeen avenue, came as a distinct shock to very many of the citizens of Hamilton, who knew her as a woman of public and patriotic spirit and with a great vision and hope. Mrs. Calder was born in Hamilton in August of 1847, of the United Empire stock which helped lay the foundations for Canadian prosperity. Educated in her native city, she began at an early age to take a practical interest in the public affairs of the time, more particularly in everything pertaining to the encouragement and development of art and patriotism.

She was one of the first members of the Westworth Historical Society, of whose first ladies' committee she held the position of secretary. She was also one of the first members of the Hamilton Art Association, and was instrumental in the formation of the Hamilton Art Association, and was instrumental in the formation of the Hamilton Art Association.

NOT STEALING, HE SAYS

By Times Special Wire.

Montreal, March 16.—A London cable to the Daily Mail says: The talk of drastic treatment of the Army Bill by the House of Commons, and the fact that it is not surprising if the "die-hard" were to make some spectacular demonstration, either with that or some other money. It is stated that a majority of the Cabinet desired a dissolution before the end of the year, but the House of Commons is not likely to pass the bill to abolish plural voting, and that will be impossible before next year.

SET ON FIRE

Looks Like Attempt to Burn Horning's Buildings.

While Harvey Twiss was returning to his home on the mountain, the night he saw smoke and fire issuing from an apple tree on the farm of Albert Horning. He aroused Mr. Horning and they put out the fire. The house was a small one, and it was close to the barnhouse, with farm buildings all around, a big fire was not given the alarm. "Why the tree was fired by a mystery, but strange footprints could be traced from the fence to the tree."

REV. ST. PETER'S MOUNTAIN CHURCH

Provost Macklem on Fundamentals of Religion.
Methodists Had Notable Anniversary Gathering.

St. Peter's Church was crowded last night to hear Rev. Dr. Macklem. Provost of Trinity College, who spoke from the words, "Verily Thou are a God that hidest Thyself," Isaiah 45.

The fundamental element of the Christian religion lay in the fact that God revealed Himself to his people. The Old Testament was one long record of such revelations, and under the new dispensation, the incarnation of Christ as incorporated in four Gospels was God's supreme effort to the revelation of Himself to man.

The text might seem to infer that God is really hiding Himself from His people, but a perusal of the context would show that He was compelled to administer strict discipline through the waywardness of His people.

As far as bearing upon present day conditions, the speaker observed that the soundness of the doctrine of God was never more clearly revealed than it was in the life of Christ. It was never more clearly revealed than it was in the life of Christ.

WANDERMAN ON HOLLAND

Fine Address to East End Salvation Army.
NEW FOOTBALL CLUB

Mr. Campaign Takes Stand About His Building.

There was a very successful and interesting lecture in the East End Salvation Army hall on Saturday night, given by Captain Vanderman, of Rotterdam, Holland.

The subject of his lecture was "Holland." The lecture was illustrated by stereoscopic views but unfortunately Mr. Vanderman's machine went wrong and the views had to be dispensed with.

Mr. Vanderman was dressed in the Dutch national costume, and delivered his lecture in the same building when his topic will be "The Life of Christ," as recorded by Professor Richard.

The new football club has been formed in connection with the Progressive Association. The club will meet in Phoenix Hall for the election of officers and all other matters.

Many are the complaints heard about the car service of the east end and yesterday evening a Times reporter was seen going to the corner of Barton and James streets for a weary period of twenty minutes.

When a car did at last arrive it was so late that the driver was not in the centre of the car could not rise in time to make their exit at the time when the car was to be taken away.

The spring weather attracted a lot of east end people from their homes and many were seen enjoying the welcome sunshine. The exhilarating influence of the weather seemed to have a most cheering effect on the young men who were riding their motor cycles. These fellows paraded the Ottawa street and Sherman avenue at a pace of some forty miles an hour.

It was well for them that no mision of the law was in view at the time, for if it were, they would have had the experience of being heavily fined for causing danger to life and property.

A. R. Campaign, whose premises at 400 Dundas street, are the headquarters of the car service, were recently sought after as suitable for a liquor license and the world is his who has patience.

LONG WAIT OF CONCESSIONS

Government Will Go No
Farther to Pacify Ulster.

DEADLOCK LIKELY

As Unionists Stand for Permanent Exclusion

LONDON, March 15.—A settlement of the Irish Home Rule difficulty apparently has been little advanced by the British Government's great concessions to the Ulsterites, and, taking the assertions of both political parties at their face value, the deadlock to date remains as immovable as before Premier Asquith's conciliatory offer was made in the House of Commons on March 2.

The signers of the Ulster covenant declare strongly that nothing less than the permanent exclusion of the Protestant counties of Ulster from the Irish Government at Dublin, instead of the proposed six-year option, will be considered by them.

The more radical covenanters demand not only the exclusion of the four counties—Antrim, Armagh, Londonderry and Down—in which the Protestants are in the majority, but they want the entire Province of Ulster excluded. Anything else, they say, would be the desertion of their comrades in counties where Protestants are in the minority, and would be treason to their cause.

CARSON TO BELFAST.

Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulster Unionists, yesterday sent a message to Belfast, saying: "So far as our preparations are concerned, the pronouncement of the Government, if anything, necessitates a still more forward movement this year. We are going to make good in action all we have been saying and preparing for during the past two years."

On the other side, the Government newspapers assert that Premier Asquith's scheme is the absolute limit of concessions, and is not a basis for further negotiations.

Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the British Admiralty, speaking at Bradford, Yorkshire, on Saturday, said:

"It seems to me that in principle I don't speak of details—that it is the last offer of His Majesty's Government can or ought to make."

MAY YIELD MORE.

Sir Edward Russell, who is a deep friend of Premier Asquith, writing in the Liverpool Daily Post, of which he is the editor, takes a different view. He writes:

"In non-political clubs everybody is confident that Premier Asquith has made up his own mind to let the Nationalists go; that sooner or later he will tell Mr. Redmond that the only feasible home rule is one with the entire exclusion of Ulster."

Irish Nationalist newspapers declare that John Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader in the House of Commons, and his colleagues could not possibly support a bill containing further surrenders from the original scheme of Irish home rule. Some of the Nationalist organs bitterly denounce the Nationalist movement as submitting to Premier Asquith's terms.

Little talk is now heard that the Orangemen's preparations to fight are a gigantic bluff. The covenanters claim to have 90,000 men drilling in Sir Edward Carson's army, with 60,000 rifles and some pieces of artillery.

The London newspapers are filled with pictures of Ulstermen in civilian clothes, and with rifles and other drifts like trained soldiers.

Winston Spencer Churchill, commenting upon the Irish address on the preparations being made here to resist home rule, said:

"The first Irish soldier or coast-guard who is attacked and killed here will be a hero, and it will be a little appreciation of this country."

Percy Holden, Ulsterman, the chief Liberal whip in the House of Commons, speaking at the annual meeting of the Irish League in London, said that there would be no general election until the home rule for Ireland, plural voting Bill had been passed by Parliament.

Perhaps the most notable address of the evening, however, was that which was afterwards delivered by the grand secretary, A. H. Lyle, who, in the course of a most stirring oration, informed the large gathering that not only had there been more good Templars in the Grand Lodge of Ontario during the past twelve months than any other year for over twenty years, but there was likewise a great increase in the general membership in the Province during the year than for any other year during the same period. Needless to say, this announcement was received with deafening applause and augurs well for greater things ere the first annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Ontario in this city in June. The next district meeting to be held will be on Saturday, May 16th.

Great Wave Has Caused
By a Hurricane.

Khatinorod, Russia, March 14.—Over one thousand persons perished to-day in the inundation of the towns of Stanitsa and Aktyrkajala by a great wave from the Sea of Azov.

The wave struck the town during a violent hurricane, which swept the Province of Kuban for over twenty years, but there was likewise a great increase in the general membership in the Province during the year than for any other year during the same period. Needless to say, this announcement was received with deafening applause and augurs well for greater things ere the first annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Ontario in this city in June. The next district meeting to be held will be on Saturday, May 16th.

A dam collapsed in the town of Temnyk, situated on the Tanais Peninsula, 50 miles north of this city, and drawing many persons. The sea washed away three hundred and thirty houses in the town of Temnyk, a historic town with a population of 10,000. It once was the seat of the Turkish fortress Akkajala.

One hundred and seventy-eight persons employed on the construction work of the Akkajala railway line were sleeping in a shed. They were awakened by the roar of the storm and fled to the railway line and endeavored to escape on it. Some, however, the engine and cars were overturned by the rushing waters and all were swept away. The hurricane raged for ten hours. When it ceased the receding flood had done a great deal of damage. Eight miles of the railway embankment was washed away, and the line was covered with the bodies of dead workmen, all showing evidence of the terrible struggle they had gone through in an endeavor to escape death. Forty-eight of the 178 persons were killed or drowned.

A later despatch places the dead at 1,300.

The towns of Stanitsa, Aktyrkajala and Yasskaja do not appear on any available maps and probably are small localities bordering on the Sea of Azov. The Province of Kuban, which the stricken towns are located, is in southern Russia, and has coast lines on both the Black Sea and the Sea of Azov. The population of the Province aggregates about 2,000,000 persons, of whom 200,000 are Cossacks. The country is extremely fertile and extensively used in the culture of grain. Catfish-breeding also is conducted on a large scale.

Don't Outgrow the Bread and Milk Habit

WHEN we were kids Mother fed us on that good old-fashioned dish—bread and milk. She knew it would make us healthy and lusty, because it gives all nourishment the body needs in a form most easily digested.

As we grow older, we are apt to think of bread and milk as only for children and not as the nourishing and strengthening dish that it really is for all of us of all ages. Eat it tonight—it will prove as tasty as ever and a palatable change from heavier foods.

EAT MORE BREAD

at every meal—and between. It is the best and most nourishing food—also the most digestible when made right. To be sure of perfect bread, properly raised and containing all the food value of the wheat,

FATAL QUAKE

Japanese Island Shaken by Earth Tremors.

Scores Killed and Great Damage Done.

LONDON, March 15.—A despatch from Tokyo says there was a severe earthquake to-day in the prefecture of Akita, on the island of Honshu, 300 miles north of Tokyo. Many persons were killed and many houses were destroyed or damaged.

There were many casualties in the Village of Kowakubi, which was ruined.

The volcano Asama-Yama, ninety miles northwest of Tokyo, is in eruption.

Full details of the disaster have not been received owing to the interruption of communication. Sixty dead bodies were found in the basin of the Onuma River, where 250 houses were destroyed. The Village of Kitamono was burned.

As a result of the earthquake a copper mine at Tsunamada collapsed. The fate of the 500 workmen in the mine is unknown.

Akita is a parish town on the Sea of Japan. It does a considerable export trade, especially in rice. The population of the city is about 30,000.

Asama-Yama is the largest active volcano in Japan. A majority of its active periods have been productive of only showers of ashes. Its last great eruption was in the year 1781, when several villages on the north side of the mountain were obliterated by huge streams of lava. The crater is about three-quarters of a mile in circumference.

JUVENILE TEMPLARS

International Temple Visited by the Grand Chief.

At the weekly meeting of International Juvenile Temple, I.O.G.T., held on Saturday afternoon in the G.O.P. Hall, James street north, P. S. Morrison, superintendent, presided over a large attendance of members and friends. Nine new members were added to the roll and several propositions for membership were also received.

In the course of business the superintendent called upon John T. Dyson, the Grand Chief Templar of the Grand Lodge of Canada, who addressed the children in a manner that gained the best of attention. At the close of his address a short programme was presented.

MUST GIVE WAY TO THE KICKERS

Duty on Agricultural Implements Likely to Drop.

AN AWKWARD CASE

Borden and White Must
"Swallow Themselves."

Ottawa, March 15.—Under the persistent siege laid by Liberalism to tariff anomalies, deemed largely responsible for the period of hard times which has followed the advent of the Borden Administration, there now seems good prospect that "the noon will come down."

The unanimity of the Liberal demand for removal of customs duties on agricultural implements, backed by overwhelming and insistent protests from farmers not only in the west but in all parts of the Dominion, has thrown the Government, already afflicted by the vote of the other day and a granting in full of the Liberal demand for "free agricultural implements."

Worried Conservatives from agricultural districts are talking out of their mouths. They are demanding in the most vociferous and open manner possible that Premier Borden and Finance Minister White should "swallow themselves" upon this question.

They are bitterly charged at the curt and unimpassioned denial by the Premier that "the noon will come down," and declare that his action threatens to alienate the wholehearted support of those engaged in agricultural associations. They are no longer content to be put off with vague assurances that "a way may be found to do something," but will not offend our friends the corporate interests. They want wholesale action, and they want it this season.

RECONSIDERATION ASSURED.

So emphatic is their position that they have been able to secure assurance that the whole question shall be reconsidered. At first it was thought to temporize with the rising sentiment by making what was the Premier's called "noon concession."

But farming constituents are making their interest manifest in an unmistakable manner.

The situation is particularly embarrassing to the Government at this time, when it is exceedingly anxious to do something substantial, either by lowering or by an increase in tariff for the iron and steel industry. How then Mr. White can continue to temporize with the rising sentiment in the Government programme in this regard and at the same time adhere to his determination to do as little as possible for the farmers, in view of the aroused sentiment among the latter, is one of the many problems which are causing members of the Administration sleepless nights.

While it is understood that an effort will be made to "play for time," and so far as possible to keep the issue confined to non-contentious matters, several Conservatives are frank in stating their determination to insist that the Premier and Finance Minister recede from the position they have taken and grant the full demand of the farmers in relation to implement duties, and believe that their position will be made a very commanding one by reason of the dissatisfaction which has existed for some weeks in relation to the Government's refusal to grant the Liberal demand for free wheat.

There is a strong progressive and insurgent element developing within the ranks of the Government supporters, and it begins to look as though the tail would be able to wag the dog.

Provisional indications point Premier Borden may have to capitulate and make what one Conservative described as "wholesale concessions."

The insurgents are bitterly chafed under the general acceptance of Dr. Michael Clark's epigrammatic epitome of the tariff policy of the Borden Administration: "Bonuses for the interests; burdens for the farmers."

UNNATURAL FATHER SENTENCED.

Lewes, England, March 15.—A sentence of five years' penal servitude was pronounced at the Assizes here yesterday on John Henry Elliott, of New York, who was found guilty by the jury of flagrant breaches of the law, the nature of which was such that the public and the press were excluded from the courtroom during the trial, which lasted six days.

The Public Prosecutor caused the arrest of Elliott on Feb. 21, after the publication of a sensational article in the New York press, in which Elliott's neighbors, who declared their affidavits were made on sworn oaths, stated that Elliott had seduced his two daughters, Florence and Dorice, with whom he resided for several months at East Grinstead, Sussex.
